

I am

A monkey at heart. A pumped up ball of energy seeking a thrill at every moment. I bounce, I roll, I reach for the sky, filling my body with bursting laughter. As I walk through the arch to Coco-Nutty Island my promise is made, “to help others and to respect my friends and fellow monkeys.” Together we explore every inch of the jungle. From wall to wall, we find gigantic air and big bounces of fun. And as our minds meld in happiness and our bodies satisfied with exhaustion, we begin to chant our monkey mantra:

“party big.
